ORDER

After making an independent review of the pleadings, files, and records in this case, and the August 2, 2018 findings, conclusions, and recommendation of the magistrate judge to dismiss for failure to comply with the court's order and/or failure to pay the requisite filing fee, the court concludes the magistrate judge's findings and conclusions are correct. Petitioner has not filed any objections to the findings, conclusions, and recommendation, nor has he paid the filing fee. The recommendation of the magistrate judge is adopted, and the petition for a writ of habeas corpus is dismissed without prejudice.

Considering the record in this case and pursuant to Fed. R. App. P. 22(b), Rule 11(a) of the Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases in the United States District Courts, and 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c), the court denies a certificate of appealability. The court adopts and incorporates by reference the magistrate judge's findings, conclusions, and recommendation filed in this case in support of its finding that the petitioner has failed to show (1) that reasonable jurists would find this court's "assessment of the constitutional claims debatable or wrong," or (2) that reasonable jurists would find "it debatable whether the petition states a valid claim of the denial of a constitutional right" and “debatable whether [this court] was correct in its procedural ruling.” Slack v. McDaniel, 529 U.S.473, 484 (2000).

If petitioner files a notice of appeal,

- () petitioner may proceed in forma pauperis on appeal.
- (X) petitioner must pay the $505.00 appellate filing fee or submit a motion to proceed in forma pauperis.

SO ORDERED.

August 30, 2018.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
